

College of Liberal Arts Graduate Faculty Membership Criteria

The process for obtaining graduate faculty membership at UL Lafayette begins with an application to the department head, academic dean, and the College's peer review committee, each of which makes a recommendation. Once submitted, applications are reviewed by the department head, academic dean, and the College's peer review committee, each of which makes a recommendation.

