M. Farmer-Kaiser reported that the registration for the doctoral hooding ceremony is strong and that both the President and Provost both will attend the ceremony. She asked that members of the Council remind their colleagues to attend and to wear their regalia.

M. Farmer-Kaiser thanked the Council for their revisions and reviewed the final version with the markups included that was approved in the last meeting. She noted that these revisions revealed that other references to the Consortium agreement with University of Southeastern Louisiana that previously, but no longer, delivered the Ed.D. Educational Leadership program that need to be removed from the University Catalog.

C. Parker reminded the Council that the first report that listed the applicants that did not required Graduate Faculty Membership Review Committee had already been approved by the Graduate Council. He also noted that the Graduate Faculty Membership Committee has reported in the revised report under consideration today that members had completed an in-depth review of the identified applicants and that the Committee was recommending appointments at the level to which was requested on their application with the exception of five members, three who were approved at the associate level and two where were denied. However, additional information was submitted by one applicant after the committee's review. After a general discussion of the materials, a motion was made to approve the report while accepting the additional faculty materials and approving the applicant for associate graduate faculty status. Motion seconded and carried.
